BE FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

The coming of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles on the first Pentecost they celebrated after Jesus' death and resurrection was a historical event, to be sure, but it is also an event that occurs again and again over thousands of years. The continual movement of the Spirit is apparent in the setting of that first Pentecost. The apostles clustered inside a room, doors locked, hiding from authorities. After the apostles were filled with the Holy Spirit, people from all over Jerusalem could hear them proclaiming their faith. Obviously, the doors and windows were open now! Like the wind, the force of the Holy Spirit could not be contained. Indeed, the fact that they were able to speak in foreign tongues, in the native languages of all people in Jerusalem no matter how far they had traveled, clarifies the mission of the disciples to spread their faith to all the known world. The Holy Spirit has reversed the effects of Babel. In Genesis, the boastful tower builders scattered to all corners of the earth once God had confused their speech. After the gift of the Holy Spirit, people from every country and of every culture gathered together to hear a message that transcended language. The Holy Spirit has no boundaries.

How is the Holy Spirit moving in your life?

ESTEN LLENOS DEL ESPIRITU SANTO

La venida del Espíritu Santo sobre los apóstoles en el primer Pentecostés que celebraron después de la muerte y resurrección de Jesús fue un hecho histórico, sin duda, pero también es un evento que ocurre una y otra vez a lo largo de miles de años. El movimiento continuo del Espíritu es evidente en el escenario de ese primer Pentecostés. Los apóstoles se agruparon dentro de una habitación, con las puertas cerradas, escondiéndose de las autoridades. Después de que los apóstoles fueron llenos del Espíritu Santo, personas de toda Jerusalén pudieron escucharlos proclamar su fe. ¡Obviamente, las puertas y ventanas estaban abiertas ahora! Como el viento, la fuerza del Espíritu Santo no pudo ser contenida. El hecho de que pudieron hablar en lenguas extranjeras, en los idiomas nativos de todas las personas en Jerusalén, sin importar cuán lejos hubiesen viajado, aclara la misión de los discípulos de difundir su fe alrededor del mundo. El Espíritu Santo ha revertido los efectos de Babel. En Génesis, los constructores de la torre se dispersaron a todos los rincones de la tierra una vez que Dios había confundido su lengua. Después del don del Espíritu Santo, personas de todos los países y de todas las culturas se reunieron para escuchar un mensaje que trascendía el lenguaje. El Espíritu Santo no tiene límites.

¿Cómo se mueve el Espíritu Santo en tu vida?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK • PREGUNTA DE LA SEMANA

GIFT OF SERVICE

Reading I Acts 2:1-11 - Descent of the Holy Spirit
Reading II 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 - Many gifts, one Spirit, and the analogy of the body
Gospel John 20:19-23 - Appearance to the disciples
Key Passage Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord. (1 Corinthians 12:4-5)

Adults: What gift of service have you received from the Holy Spirit and how well are you using it right now?

Child: What gift do you hope to receive from the Holy Spirit? How could you use it to serve others?

EL DON DEL SERVICIO

Lectura I Hechos 2: 1-11 - Descenso del Espíritu Santo
Lectura II 1 Corintios 12: 3b-7, 12-13 - Muchos dones, un solo Espíritu y la analogía del cuerpo
Evangelio Juan 20: 19-23 - Aparición a los discípulos
Pasaje clave Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo. Hay diferentes actividades, pero Dios, que hace todo en todos, es el mismo. (1 Corintios 12:4-5)

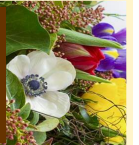

Adultos: ¿Qué obsequio de servicio ha recibido del Espíritu Santo y qué tan bien lo está usando en este momento?

Niño: ¿Qué regalo esperas recibir del Espíritu Santo? ¿Cómo podrías usarlo para servir a los demás?

VENI, SACNTE SPIRITUS

by Fr. Paul Turner

On Pentecost we insert a hymn into the Scripture readings of the day. After the second reading and before the Gospel, we sing "Veni, Sancte Spiritus," or "Come, Holy Spirit, Come!" – the sequence for Pentecost Sunday. A sequence is a hymn added to the Liturgy of the Word on special days throughout the year. Sequences are optional, except for those on Easter and Pentecost.

"Veni, Sancte Spiritus" was probably composed by Stephen Langton (1228), the archbishop of Canterbury, although some think Pope Innocent III (1216) was the author. Stephen Langton is also responsible for dividing the books of the Bible into the chapters we mostly observe today.

The sequence for Pentecost prays for the coming of the Holy Spirit to bring comfort and forgiveness to the faithful. It opens with many repetitions of the word "come" and closes with repetitions of the request to "give." Along the way, it affirms various titles and attributes of the Spirit: father of the poor, source of all our store, comforter, refreshment, rest, coolness and solace. The hymn asks the Spirit to shine in the hearts of the singers and to grant healing, strength, forgiveness and salvation.

The original Latin poetry is quite elegant. Each of the 10 stanzas has three lines. The first two lines rhyme and the last word of each stanza always ends with the letter ium. This sequence once appeared in each liturgy every day during the octave of Pentecost. Now it is called for only on the day of Pentecost. The hymn now may be sung or recited but it was written for singing. The verses may be alternated between the choir and the assembly.

VENI, SACNTE SPIRITUS (VEN, ESPIRITU SANTO)

by Fr. Paul Turner

En Pentecostés, insertamos un himno en las lecturas bíblicas del día. Después de la segunda lectura y antes del Evangelio, cantamos "Veni, Sancte Spiritus" o "Ven, Espíritu Santo, ven!" – la secuencia del Domingo de Pentecostés. Una secuencia es un himno agregado a la Liturgia de la Palabra en días especiales durante todo el año. Las secuencias son opcionales, excepto las de Semana Santa y Pentecostés.

"Veni, Sancte Spiritus" probablemente fue compuesta por Stephen Langton (1228), el arzobispo de Canterbury, aunque algunos piensan que el Papa Inocencio III (1216) fue el autor. Stephen Langton también es responsable de dividir los libros de la Biblia en los capítulos que en su mayoría observamos hoy.

La secuencia de las oraciones de Pentecostés para la venida del Espíritu Santo para brindar consuelo y perdón a los fieles. Se abre con muchas repeticiones de la palabra "venir" y se cierra con repeticiones de la solicitud de "dar". En el camino, afirma varios títulos y atributos del Espíritu: padre de los pobres, fuente de toda nuestra tienda, consolador, refresco, descanso, frescura y consuelo. El himno le pide al Espíritu brillar en los corazones de los cantantes y otorgar curación, fortaleza, perdón y salvación.

La poesía latina original es bastante elegante. Cada una de las 10 estrofas tiene tres líneas. Las primeras dos líneas riman y la última palabra de cada estrofa siempre termina con la letra ium. Esta secuencia apareció una vez en cada liturgia todos los días durante la octava de Pentecostés. Ahora es llamado solo el día de Pentecostés. El himno ahora puede cantarse o recitarse, pero fue escrito para cantar. Los versos se pueden alternar entre el coro y la asamblea.

DID YOU KNOW...? Your gifts to Our Catholic Appeal bring families closer to God and one another.

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI described the family as "the first and indispensable teacher of peace." We want to nurture the faith of our families and support them as they face the challenges of our morally troubled world. Because of your generous gifts to Our Catholic Appeal, all families in our parish – and throughout our diocese – are able to benefit from support services provided by the Secretariat for Laity, Family, and Life's Family Ministry. Opportunities include supporting parishes with marriage enrichment programming as well resources designed to address the unique needs of stepfamilies and single parent families.
